Gen. J. R. Chalmers is in the city.

Senator Hamilton, of Holmes, was in the city yesterday.

Joel P. Walker of the Meridian bar, was in the city last Thursday.

Hon. A. J. Lewis, of Port Gibson, is in the city and has favored us with a call.

Our friend Capt. S. K. Sorsby of Spring Ridge, gave us a pleasant call yesterday.

Mrs. Mary C. Barkdale has returned from her protracted visit to New Orleans, accompanied by little Miss Josie Craig.

We learn that Col. Jno. Scott, President of the V. & M. Railroad has subscribed $250 to the State Fair.

Gen. J. D. Verrier, of Port Gibson, is among the prominent members of the bar in attendance on the Supreme Court this week.

The Jackson Literary Club meets at Dr. Bailey's on Thursday, (to-morrow) evening. A full meeting is specially desired.

The meetings at the Baptist church, which have been in progress for the past week or so, have been well attended, and productive of great good.

Judge Baldwin, of Claiborne, and Hon. H. P. Ellett (old time friends, by the way) are among the welcome callers at the CLARION sanctum.

Hon. J. P. Carter, of Perry, and Dr. Griffin, and Rev. J. M. Weema, of the Seashore, delighted THE CLARION with their presence last Saturday.

Messrs. G. D. Sidway and Laydore Straus, of the Relief Committee, went down to the scene of the cyclone disaster last Wednesday and did good work.

Col. E. Richardson, our ex-townsmen, has been elected President of the Great International Cotton Exposition to be held at New Orleans, in 1884.

The Natchez, Jackson & Columbus Railroad have revised their time-table, which took effect on the 30th April. The same will be found at head of this column.

H. C. Fairman, Esq., has removed his law office to the Kells building, where he is comfortably established, prepared to attend promptly to all matters in the line of his profession.

Col. J. L. Power, Grand Master of Odd Fellows in Mississippi, left for Columbus on Monday evening last, to attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge at that city, which convenes to-day.

Mr. George L. Crosby, of the Monitor, Utica, passed through this place last returning from Beauregard, where he had been to convey material comforts contributed by the good people of Utica for the sufferers.

Our gallant friend of the Bolton bar, Harry Peyton, Esq., was among the visitors to the capital yesterday. Also Mr. McKee, President of the Hinds county Board of Supervisors—accompanied by his accomplished wife.

We were glad to meet yesterday our staunch friend and first-class gentleman, Sheriff Geo. B. Harper of Decatur, who was here making final settlement with the Auditor. Not a foot of delinquent State lands were returned in his county.

Among the Sheriffs not heretofore mentioned, who have visited the Auditor's office during the past few days, we are pleased to note Messrs. Walker, of Claiborne, Lyle of Scott, Sykes, of Monroe, Cameron, of Jefferson and Wilson of Holmes.

The Fireman's Silver Cornet Band, of Vicksburg, contributed very much to the enjoyment of the Firemen's Celebration here yesterday by the sweet music they discoursed. The leader Mr. Frank Fisher, is we regret to learn, about to resign the leadership of the band.

In the report of amounts contributed to relief of cyclone sufferers in CLARION of last week the name of Judge J. A. P. Campbell appears as having contributed $5.00; the amount should have been $10.00. We hasten to make proper correction at the earliest opportunity.

Rev. Mr. Calloway, President of Payne Institute, Georgia, will preach at the Methodist church next Wednesday night. The Payne Institute was recently established by the M. E. Church South, for the education of colored preachers.

The excursion to Vicksburg, Wednesday last, was an enjoyable affair, as fire company excursions generally are. The fire boys of Vicksburg met the Jackson boys with open arms. A fine repast was spread, and all went merry as the day was long.

There will be an excursion on Wednesday next, May 2nd, from Jackson to Natchez, given by Hope Fire Co., No. 3, (col). The public are invited to attend. The train will leave Jackson at 6 o'clock in the morning. Fare for the round trip, $1.50.

Miss Katie Campbell, who has been visiting relatives and friends in this city, for several months, left for her home in Olney, Illinois, on Sunday night. She won many friends during her stay here, and will always be welcomed to our city. She was accompanied by Miss Nannie Rice, who will spend the summer months in Illinois.

NEGOTIATION FOR LOWER FREIGHT.—A meeting of our business men was held in the Town Hall, on the 24th, to obtain lower freights from the Railroad managers. Mr. E. Watkins was Chairman, and Mr. C. L. Wilder, Secretary of the meeting. Messrs. Gen. Lemmon, Byron Lemley, E. Watkins, C. L. Wilder and Laydore Straus, were appointed to confer with the Railroad managers; and Messrs. R. L. Saunders, B. W. Griffith and G. D. Sidway were appointed to draft by-laws for the organization of a Board of Trade.

The Mite Society meeting was held at Mrs. Thos. Green's residence, on Friday night last, and was quite an enjoyable affair. Miss Susie Stevens, the nine year old daughter of our townsman, Capt. J. P. Stevens, rendered her part with such ease and distinctness that the applause was universal. The amount realized was $20, being about the largest proceeds of any of the entertainments yet given, which evidences the fact of their growing popularity. The next meeting will be held at the Methodist parsonage; all are invited to attend.

We had the pleasure of a call last week from Mr. Osborn, Superintendent Southern Express Company, and Mr. Pardee, the accomplished Route Agent, and were pleased to be assured by them that an up-town Express office had been resolved upon, and will be opened in September, on Capitol street, between CLARION office and Scutter's corner. The Express wagon will hereafter call for packages every morning and afternoon. These improvements in the Express service have been much needed, and will be of immense convenience to the public.

Jackson is getting to be such a great railroad centre, and so many trains move out daily from the railroad junction, it would be well to label them "North bound," "South bound," etc. Our worthy townsman, Phil Ryan, for instance, wanted to go on the fireman's excursion to Vicksburg last Wednesday, but we found him aboard the "Little J," and he did not discover his mistake until the conductor took up tickets. On Mr. Ryan's return next day, he gave his friends quite a graphic description of the parade, the fine dinner he had with his friends, etc., but his presence in Raymond was so unusual, it is said to have been telegraphed to the capital.

There will be no preaching at the Methodist and Baptist churches on Sunday next. The quarterly conference of Dr. Hunter's 25 years' pastorate at Jackson being celebrated on that day. There will be preaching in the morning at the Presbyterian church by Dr. Thos. R. Markham, of New Orleans; and a historical discourse at night, by Dr. Hunter, reviewing the history of the church from its foundation to the present time. Letters from absent members of the church, and their families who cannot attend, will be read. A social reunion and jubilee at the manse will take place on Monday night, to which all members of the church and friends of the pastor and family are cordially invited to attend.

Our whole community sympathize with Col. C. A. Brounger in the loss of his daughter, Miss KATIE, who died in Sharkey county, near Sunflower, on Monday, 23d April, of congestion of the lungs, aged 23 years. At the time of her death she was teaching a private school near Johnsonville, where she has been for 8 months past. Miss KATIE was a young lady of rare attainments and great force of character and independence of spirit, but with these also were joined the tender loving heart and the kindlier virtues of a true woman. She had gone out in the world early in life to battle with its hardships and privations, and to make her way by her own efforts. Her early death is sad, but her example is worthy of imitation by all.

RELIEF RECEIPTS.

JACKSON, Miss., April 20, 1883.

The receipt of the following sums is gratefully acknowledged in behalf of the sufferers by the cyclone of 23d inst. All receipts from May 1st, to which will be acknowledged through THE CLARION, 3d. The funds thus far received have been distributed to Beauregard, Wesson, Georgetown, Westville, Morton and French Camp. The needs of all these points, and perhaps other places in the interior not yet heard from, are very great, and the undersigned will take special pleasure in making the most judicious distribution possible.

While the contributions from the Fraternity I represent, are to be applied, chiefly, for the relief of members of the same, I am instructed to use them where they will relieve the greatest suffering.

MARRIED.

CHARLES—GLENN—On Wednesday, April 25, 1883, at the residence of the bride's mother, by the Rev. H. H. Water, R. S. Charles, Jr., and Daisy Chalmers Glenn, daughter of the late J. W. Glenn. Both of New Orleans.

In Beauregard, Copiah county, Mississippi, at 9 o'clock on the evening of Wednesday, April 18th, 1883, at the residence of Hon. J. H. Thompson, father of the bride, by the Rev. E. H. Mounzer, of Port Gibson, Dr. J. T. Butler, late of Missouri, to Miss Maggie H. Thompson, of Beauregard.

(We cannot withhold our congratulations from the fair bride and her gallant husband. The announcement awakens the sad reflection that within a few days after the happy event, the luxurious home of the bride, the abode of a happy family, was desolated by the terrible cyclone and the scene was sadly changed.)

The undersigned takes pleasure in returning his hearty thanks to the officers and members of Gen. Fire Company No. 2, for the invitation so generously extended to him as a member of Volunteer Fire Company No. 1, of New Orleans, and for the unparalleled welcome and hospitality extended to him as a representative of that organization.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned takes pleasure in returning his hearty thanks to the officers and members of Gen. MAY 1st.

Firemen's Annual Parade.

At an early hour yesterday morning the red shirt boys could be seen passing and repassing each other on the way to their several places of rendezvous. At the different engine houses were a number of ladies and gentlemen all busily engaged in the pleasant occupation of trying to make the company of their choice appear to the best advantage by decorating the engine with flowers, ribbons, evergreens, etc., and the ladies by their presence encouraging the members to make the best display possible of their portion of the Department. As soon as the music struck up men, women and children were to be seen hurrying up and down the streets anxious to secure a position where a good view could be obtained of the procession. A number of visitors were present from adjacent towns, and the surrounding country to view the turnout. The day was clear, the sun shining, and a pleasant breeze stirring, a better day for the occasion could not have been wished for, or expected.

THE PROCESSION.

At 12 o'clock the procession formed in front of the Capitol, and marched up State street to High, west to President, south to Capitol, west to Railroad Ave., south to Pearl, east to Farish, south to Pascagoula, east to Congress, south to the Gen. Engine House, where refreshments were served, thence to Capitol at which place the procession disbanded.

The procession was headed by the officers of the Fire Department.

R. L. Saunders, Chief;
E. H. Reber, 1st Assistant;
C. Cummings, 2d Assistant;
W. S. Hamilton, Secretary;

mounted on four splendid charges followed by the Firemen's Silver Cornet Band, Vicksburg, Mr. Frank Fisher, leader.

WEST JACKSON FIRE COMPANY NO. 1 came first in order, and had a full turnout.

Mr. B. L. McLean, as Marshall of the day, rode in front followed by the hose carriage handsomely decorated.

The engine was drawn by four fine horses richly caparisoned, with dark satin covers trimmed with silver sheens, and plume flags waving on their heads; the engine was trimmed with white wrapping, bound with darker colors, and borders of the same material as the wrappings, which were rounded and set off with silver hangings. The whole was embellished with choice flowers, and in the rear followed the company members dressed in uniform and all presenting a beautiful spectacle.

PEARL HOOK AND LADDER NO. 1.

followed next in order: Berge trimmings of white, yellow and pink and flowers adorned the truck, which was drawn by four horses with grooms, followed by the Company boys; a large pyramid of natural flowers in center of truck gave to it a magnificent appearance. Then came the
